

W. G. Gooderham (1853-1935)

W. G. Gooderham was the eldest son of George Gooderham and Harriet Dean. Born in Toronto in 1853, W. G. was educated at Upper Canada College, and described as a “capitalist and manufacturer” in Morgan’s 1912 Men and Women of the Time. At that time, he was president of both Gooderham & Worts and Canadian Permanent Mortgage Corporation, and vice-president of the Bank of Toronto. Two years later, in 1914, he became president of Manufacturer’s Life . He was painted in 1918 by prominent Canadian portrait, Sir Edmund Wyly Grier.